“ I loved her sweet smile; her kind and thoughtfulness towards others. She loved creating things with her hands - gardens, wood decorations, blankets. She loved her flowers! I have so many wonderful memories of my grandmother! Sunlight tea and Pepsi - a special treat! Dunking Oreo's in milk. Apple strudel - Yum! Poking the felt eyes into the wood creatures - and getting scolded for making the owls cross-eyed. Helping gather flower seeds into jars in the fall and then helping plant them in the spring. I remember laughing when she would give me sweet pickles to keep me sweet... because the dill ones make you sour she would say. Or how she would greet us at the door with a smile and ask
