In loving memory of Annie Lilly

Annelise Renee Lilly passed away suddenly on Oct. 19 at the tender age of 15. Annie was a beautiful girl who touched the life of all who knew her. Annie possessed a sweet soul and was loving and kind to all. An artist, a writer, a singer, her talents will be missed as well as her sweet smile.

Annie is survived by her Mother, Charissa Renee Jones-Lilly of Lincoln City, her Father, Gregory Lilly of Portland, Grandparents Greg O. Jones of Lincoln City, Karen Kay Jones of Portland and David Ornduff of Vancouver, Wash., her Sister Siri Lilly of Lincoln City and Aunts Andrea Jones of Portland and Heather Ornduff of Vancouver, Wash.

Services will be held for Annie at the Lincoln City Eagles Lodge on Saturday, Nov. 7 at 2 p.m. and in Portland at the Scandinavian Culture Center on Olson Road on November 8th at 2 p.m.

All who knew and loved Annie are invited.

“ I remember sitting in the back yard of your Portland house one summer afternoon, and sweet little Annie was running around us and in & out of the house singing & laughing but she was just starting to talk english. Only Siri could understand and enlightened us that Annie was singing an Avril LeVergne song!! Oh my gosh we laughed so hard!! This is how I remember Annie!! Laughing & singing!! Peace to your family!♥♥♥♥♥
