

Barbara Ruth Washburn

October 8, 1943 - February 15, 2018

Barbara was born October 8, 1943 in Portland, Oregon to John & Jolene (Trammell) Shivers. She passed away with those she loved by her side and her care team at Willamette Valley Medical Center on February 15, 2018 in McMinnville, Oregon at the age of 74.

Barbara married Lester A. Washburn, Jr. in Days Creek, Oregon having 2 children together. Barb & Les lived most of their lives in their beloved southern Oregon home. She was well known for her love of playing pinochle with family in Myrtle Creek, Oregon. Upon moving to the coast she found friends who shared her passion of playing pinochle at the Lincoln City Senior Center. During her working years she was the co-owner of JL&W Mobile Home Towing for over 30 years with her husband, Les and prior to that she was a bartender & waitress. Barb enjoyed fishing, pinochle, her two little dogs and playing jigsaw puzzles on the internet.

Left to mourn is her spouse Lester A Washburn, Jr., her son Tony and his spouse Norma Jean Washburn, her daughter Lisa and her husband Brian Gregory along with nine grandchildren, thirteen great grandchildren and many other relatives and friends.

Barb is preceded in death by her father John Wilson Shivers and her brother Johnny Shivers.
