Helen Elizabeth Treend was born in Highland Park, Michigan on February 5th, 1932 to John and Blanche (Boss) Kuhn. She grew up in Michigan with her beloved sister Sidney and graduated from Central Michigan University with a degree in Education. It was in college that she met and married Charles L. Treend in 1954. She was a teacher in Michigan, Florida and California and throughout her travels had four children. As they eventually settled in Southern California she pursued her passion for the environment and became fondly known as "The Tree Lady". She retired to Lincoln City in 1998 with her husband and quickly became involved with AAUW and the Oregon Coast Quilters Guild. She loved the Oregon Coast and was the happiest outside enjoying nature. She never met an adventure she did not want to pursue and had a life's worth of amazing stories to share.

She passed away on July 10th and is survived by her loving family. Her daughter Judith Ann and son-in-law Sam Dunkin of Astoria; her son Michael S. Treend of Rosburg; WA, her daughter Lee Ann and son-in-law David of Lincoln City, OR; and her son Patrick J.
