

Henry Baller

June 20, 2016

Longtime Oregon Coast resident Henry "Hank" Baller passed away June 20, 2016, at the age of 92. He was born in Silverton, Ore., in 1924. He was living at the Oregon Veterans Home in Lebanon at the time of his death. He and his wife, Irene, were married for 60 years before she passed away in 2007. Henry was a World War II Army veteran, who served in Europe during the war. He was a timber faller for over 30 years before retiring from the woods. Then he worked for several more years with the Lincoln County Road Department.

He is survived by his daughter, Sharon Baller Gustafson, and her husband, Richard, of Pagosa Springs, Colo.; his son, William Baller, and his wife, Sandra, of Gresham, Ore.; his son, Henry "Hank" R. Baller, and his wife, Cindy, of Hillsboro, Ore.; his daughter-in-law, Debra Baller, of Monmouth, Ore.; five grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. His son Stan passed away in 2011.

He will be interred at Pacific View Memorial Gardens in Lincoln City. There is no memorial service planned.
