

Jennifer M Badeau

July 11, 1970 - April 12, 2023

Jennifer Michelle Badeau, 52, of Lincoln city, Oregon passed away unexpectedly on Wednesday April 12th, 2023 at home.

She was born July 11, 1970 in Oregon City, OR, she was the daughter of Cheryl May Allphin. Jennifer married the love of her life, Mathew Badeau 35 years ago on December 12, 1987. Her biggest accomplishment in life was her 4 sons who she cherished deeply.

Jennifer was a mother to so many, loved to travel, and when she called you a friend she meant it. Her generosity and kindness knew no bounds, she was a person with a heart of gold. Jennifer was the type of person that even if she had nothing left for herself, she would put the needs of others first. Her caring heart was something that will be missed by many.

Jennifer leaves behind her husband Mathew Badeau, Sons Bradon Badeau, Corey (Bethany) Day, Zach (Nina) Badeau, Grandson Evryn Miller, and Brother Daniel (Amy Jo) Allphin. She also leaves behind many friends who called her mom.

Jennifer was predeceased by her son Alex Badeau, Mother Cheryl Allphin and Grandparents Aubrey (Alice) Day.

We will be holding a celebration of life on July 11th, 2023 details to follow.

“ April 16, 2023 Forest Allphin wrote a sympathy message "There is no way to state how sorry I am for your loss Mat and the Boys. Although Jennifer and I have been distance for some time. She was still my baby girl that I loved very dearly. May you rest in peace Jennifer with your Mon and Alex. Love you and miss you, Jen. Love you, Dad."

“ From the moment Matt and Jen moved in, she treated me and my family like we had known each other for years. I'm going to miss out porch talks. She was always teasing my son. She called him trouble, instead of his name. She will truly be missed.
