

John R Robben

August 21, 1935 - August 23, 2015

Born in 1935, Jack "Oily Bird" Robben was the youngest of seven brothers and sisters. His father, Herman was in the heating and oil business. Logically, Jack and his brothers learned the trade as well. In 1962, Jack and his bride, Pat, moved to Lincoln City, and started North Lincoln Oil Company. Jack's family grew to two sons (Greg and Jeff) and two daughters (Vickie and Tracie). Throughout the next 50 years, Jack and his son Greg partnered up and created Robben Heating and Robben Rent-A-Car. Jack was very involved in his community and church. He was an active member of the Fire Department, The Elks, and St. Augustine Catholic Church. Jack was an extremely giving man, whether it be his time or resources, he would help just about anyone he could. He had an amazing sense of humor and a quick wit. He leaves a big hole in the hearts of many. Jack passed away August 23, 2015. He is preceded in death by his parents Herman and Francis, his wife Pat, brother Dave and daughter Vickie. He is survived and loved by his children: Greg, Jeff, and Tracie. His grandchildren: Tanya, Trisha, Nikolas, and Ashleigh. His brothers and sisters: Joan, Lionel, Delores, Doris, and Marie. He also has several nieces and nephews that he is loved and survived by. He is buried next to his wife Pat at Pacific View. Services for Jack will be on Friday, September 4, 2015 at 2:00 at St. Augustine Catholic Church. In lieu of flowers, Jack would have appreciated donations being made to St. Augustine.
