Obituary for Juan Miguel Aguirre

September 1, 1970 - September 9, 2023

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Juan Miguel Aguirre, a truly remarkable and beloved individual who left an indelible mark on the lives of those who were fortunate enough to know him. Juan was a man of boundless love, an artist whose passion for life mirrored the vastness of the ocean he adored.

Born with a creative soul in Brownsville Texas, Juan's artistic talents shone brightly throughout his life. His art projects in the Dallas area were not merely exhibitions but expressions of his vibrant spirit and unique perspective. He touched the hearts of many with his creative work, leaving behind a legacy that will continue to inspire generations.

Juan's love and passion for art began at a very young age. While in high school, he attended the Arts Magnet at Booker T. Washington in Dallas, Texas and later he went on to earn his associates degree in design and merchandising at Wade College.

His art was displayed in many locations throughout the United States.

Amongst his many achievements, he produced an award-winning mural at the La Piazza del Arte Chalk Festival in Denver, Colorado. Another one of Juan's many projects included a mural entitled, "One Human Family", a giant rainbow mural which included many diverse faces representing all of humanity. Juan was an advocate for equality. Through his artwork, he expressed his passion and deep desire for all of humanity to be equally treated with kindness, love, and respect.

In the pursuit of love and happiness, Juan met the love of his life, Rafael Laureano. Together they embarked on a journey west of Portland, Oregon, where they found solace in the gentle rhythms of the Pacific coast. Together, they relished the simple joys of life, nurturing their pets and strolling hand in hand along the beach, with the sound of the waves as the foundation of their love.

In honor of Juan Miguel Aguirre's life, we celebrate the love he shared with his family. He is survived by his loving husband, Rafael Laureano, his children Luis Laureano, Christina Laureano, Rafael Laureano, Jr., Shavonna Wilson, and six grandchildren. Juan is also survived by his parents Miguel Aguirre and Raquel DeLeon, along with his sisters Veronica Alvarez, Patricia Aguirre, Monica Greenlee, Barbara Heredia, Laura Hargove, Brenda Aguirre, and numerous nieces and nephews.

“ My brother Juan was an amazing man full of love and creativity. He was always busy doing something. He enjoyed helping others and always thought about others instead of himself. I will always love him. Even though he was here a short time, he made a big impression on all of us that we're blessed to have him in our lives. With all my love Bety
