

Robert Allen Carrington

January 20, 1942 - September 29, 2017

Robert was born January 20, 1942 in Centralia, Washington to Clyde & Ella (Street) Carrington. He passed away at his home in Lincoln City, Oregon on September 29, 2017.

Bob was an Engineering PhD and worked in refining, research and project management for several government and private companies. Bob loved introducing young people to the wonders of science. He met Sheila Anderson in 1972 and they spent the rest of their lives together. Bob did some wood carving and painting. However, his major interest (when he had time) was rocks and fossils. He dug them up, cut them, polished them and made some beautiful things. Bob also enjoyed local fishing and crabbing.

In lieu of flowers please send donations in Bob's name to the charity of your choice.
