

Winona Supernaw Fowler

May 23, 1920 - September 4, 2015

Winona Supernaw Fowler passed away in her Lincoln City home on Sept. 4, 2015 at the age of 95. Winona was born on May 23, 1920 in Lincoln, Nebraska to Ruth (Thomason) and Paul Supernaw. She moved to Los Angeles in 1941 and married Glen A. Fowler, also of Lincoln. They were happily married for 71 years, until his death in 2013. They lived in the greater Los Angeles area until 1957 when they moved to McMinnville, Oregon where Winona worked at Montgomery Ward. They returned to Southern California in 1968 and upon her retirement from Security Pacific Bank, she and Glen returned to Oregon to be near family - first to Salem and then finally to their home on Devils Lake.

Winona enjoyed traveling, reading, sewing and especially crocheting. Devoted to her family and loved by all who knew her, Winona was known for her smile and warm personality which made everyone feel welcome and at home.

She is survived by her daughter Marsha Baker; son Larry Fowler; grandchildren Christine Hill, Angie McNett, Jason Baker and Keith Fowler; and four great-grandchildren. She is also survived by her sister, Mary Ramsey, of Lincoln, Nebraska.

No service is planned.
